

3,000,000 METHODISTS AID FIGHT AGAINST ROBERTS.

Bishop and Officers of the Church Take Decisive Action.

AT CAPITAL SESSION.

M. E. Pastors Collect Thousands of Names for the Big Petition.

THE Methodist Episcopal Church, through its bishops and other officials, yesterday officially placed itself on record as endorsing the Journal's great national crusade against Roberts and polygamy.

Nearly all the members of the General Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church who took action at Washington yesterday joined the Anti-Polygamy League organized by the Journal a year ago.

The approval of the crusade in the interests of the home by the Methodist officials yesterday carries with it the endorsement of three million communicants of the Methodist Episcopal Church throughout the country.

More than 100,000 names were received yesterday for the Journal's big petition to Congress.

Among the signatures sent in by every mail were 43,000 collected by the pastors of Methodist Episcopal churches throughout the country.

Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, now has been a fugitive from justice for thirteen days.

Washington, Nov. 21.—By a rising vote and amid excitement and applause of extraordinary nature, the General Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session in this city, this afternoon adopted resolutions calling upon the House of Representatives to expel Brigham H. Roberts from the seat to which he has been elected in that body. The resolutions will be presented to the President and the House of Representatives and the Senate in the form of a memorial.

In the memorial is an urgent call for a Constitutional amendment making polygamy a crime against the United States. Bishop Warren read the following:

The United States Senate and House of Representatives:

The General Methodist Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, composed of the bishops, officers of the Missionary Society and representatives from all parts of the country, heretofore expressed its unqualified disapproval of the election, by the State of Utah, of Brigham H. Roberts, an avowed polygamist, to the House of Representatives of the United States.

Whereas, By the election of Brigham H. Roberts, Utah publicly repudiated her solemn agreement with the United States to secure statehood; and

Whereas, In view of the past history of the Methodist Episcopal Church, composed of the bishops, officers of the Missionary Society and representatives from all parts of the country, heretofore expressed its unqualified disapproval of the election, by the State of Utah, of Brigham H. Roberts, an avowed polygamist, to the House of Representatives of the United States;

Therefore, We must respectfully and most earnestly call upon every representative of the Fifty-sixth Congress to use his utmost endeavor and to exhaust all honorable means to secure the prompt expulsion of the said Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, from the House of Representatives. In accordance with the provision of the National Constitution in Article I, Section 5, Paragraph 2, which reads as follows: "Each house of Congress may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member."

Urges the Amendment.

We also most earnestly call upon every member of the Senate and House of Representatives to use his utmost endeavor and to exhaust all honorable means to secure the prompt expulsion of the said Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, from the House of Representatives. In accordance with the provision of the National Constitution in Article I, Section 5, Paragraph 2, which reads as follows: "Each house of Congress may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member."

To the U. S. House of Representatives:

The undersigned earnestly petition you to reject or expel Brigham H. Roberts, Congressman-elect from Utah, and to submit a constitutional amendment, disqualifying polygamists from holding public office under the United States Government.

The importance of today's action cannot be overestimated. The committee members in private have talked over the situation during the last few days with seriousness. Some were at first indisposed to touch upon the subject for fear some political construction might be placed upon the action. The most conservative finally came to the conclusion that the call of duty was imperative and that the Methodist Church of America as a body should place itself on record and today's memorial to Congress and representing three million persons resolved.

JOURNAL PETITION ADOPTED IN BROOKLYN.

The Journal's Petition to Congress against Roberts and polygamy was unanimously adopted and signed by all present at the meeting of the Brooklyn Woman's Suffrage Association held at No. 153 Pierpont street, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Lohm, president of the association, denounced Roberts, and declared that the women of the society would always uphold a standard of all that is pure and right in the lives of both men and women.

Accused Held, Accused Dismissed.

Max Yackelson, of No. 581 First avenue, an assistant foreman in the Street Cleaning Department, was charged in the Centre Street Court yesterday by his brother-in-law, Bernard Dickman, of No. 32 Jackson street, with having procured the department out of $800 by means of counterfeit snow checks. The prisoner retained by charging Dickman with attempted blackmail. Magistrate Mayo credited Yackelson's statement that Dickman had demanded money under threats of prosecution, and held Dickman in $1,000 bail. Yackelson was dismissed.

Springfield, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Washington, D. C., was today selected as the place for the next annual convention of the National Grange, the choice being made after a warm contest by Detroit, Buffalo and Cleveland.

The Executive Committee reported more than $50,000 to the credit of the National Grange, an increase of $10,000 over last year. There are 35,000 members among them. Touching trusts, Chairman J. J. Woodman said every effort should be made to crush them, as they could not be controlled.

At the annual meeting of the New York Orthopedic Dispensary and Hospital yesterday the following officers were elected: President, O. E. Schmidt; vice-president, Prescott Hall Butler; Secretary, Louis V. Bright; treasurer, Edward A. Smith.

SINGER FROM GOLDEN GATE WINS FAVOR.

Maude Lillian Berri, New Prima Donna.

MAUDE LILLIAN BERRI made her debut in grand opera at the American Theatre last week in "Der Freischütz," sang Donizetti's tuneful melodies so pleasantly and acted with such artistic finish that she was very warmly applauded. Miss Berri is a daughter of Fulton G. Berri, of Fresno, Cal., where she was born. She is a dramatic soprano, with a voice a little too large for Donizetti's delicate measures, but she is an intelligent and skilful artist, and, it is expected, will prove herself of great value to the Castle Square Company.

FORBIDDEN TO WEAR, PAINTINGS OF ALL AGES AT AUCTION.

Supposed illness is due to Grief for Her Lover.

Two hundred and sixteen paintings are to be sold in the Knickerbocker Auction rooms to-day, to-morrow and Friday evening. They are varied enough to please all tastes. They have brilliancy enough to make many persons happy. In gilt frames, in shadow boxes, under glass, as well kept as treasures ought to be, they appear—Collections of the late Recorder James M. Smith and of the late E. C. Delavan, of Albany.

There are works of Kock-Kock and of Verboeckhoven, who have celebrity of names. Fances and Richet, who have done at that they could do to deserve it; of Cullie, Girardet, Maes, Loxeys and others, who were ambitious and grave; of anonymous artists of the days when the desire to work for the sake of doing well was more intense than the desire to work for fame and fortune.

There are a gentle "Summer Girl in pink," by T. Guy Whiteley; "Kittens," by Brunel Neville; "Feeding the Bird," by Edouard Gellay; "Drafted for Military Service," by A. J. Madiol; "Children," by Mies; the "Interior of the Cathedral at Milan," a picture in architectural details, by H. Schaefer; "Sleep in the Barn," by Van Sly; scenes of Paris by Mascart, Bare and others, who may become famous in the ages.

Eugene Girardet's "At the Entrance to the Mosque" has the figure of a native in his costume, seated on a brilliant carpet, feeding two doves from a platter. Jean Beaudouin's "Thais" has a white flower in her black hair, and holds in her left hand a mirror. Verboeckhoven's "Browning Donkey" is not the one of Apuleius that became a man if he ate rose leaves, nor one of those that were the most intelligent of animals. Verboeckhoven's "Browning Donkey" is monumental and still life, history, religious, landscapes, marine views, manners, styles of architecture, interiors of homes, are in the collection. There are many pieces among them that are valuable, or will be. At the exhibition yesterday the pleasure that the members gave to a crowd of visitors disarmed the critics.

A woman with a baby in her arms told a policeman at the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Newark yesterday that she was ill and starving. She said that she had been deserted by her husband in New York. The woman and her child were sent to the City Hospital. The mother said her name was Emma Hill. She had wandered about Newark looking for friends.

LIKE POISON

Coffee Acts on Some People.

"Being forced to give up coffee, I did it in a halfhearted way, drinking cocoa in the morning, but soon became tired of that and longed for the real Java."

"Finally I tried Postum Food Coffee, and since that time have drunk it to the exclusion of every other beverage. You can imagine I like it."

"Last Summer I was in a place where nothing but Java coffee was served on the breakfast table, and I re-commenced the use of it."

"In two or three weeks I began to suffer from dizziness and explosive noises in my head."

"One evening after waiting about half a mile, I became dizzy and could hardly get back home, where I fell, exhausted, on the bed. I knew what the trouble was, and insisted upon having Postum instead of the old-fashioned coffee, and got well in short order."

"I have always thought it worth while to warn the cook, wherever I happen to be, to make the Postum properly, that is, by boiling it long enough. Please do not print my name."

This lady lives in Pasadena, Cal., and the name will be given on application to the Postum Co., at Battle Creek, Mich.

THE BIG STORE A CITY IN ITSELF

SIEGEL & COOPER CO. SIXTH AVE. 16th & 19th STS.

Druggists' Sundries, Proprietary Medicines, Toilet Articles, &c., &c., At Reasonable and Popular Prices.

No matter how healthy you may be, you have to patronize the drug store occasionally. You've found the prices of the exclusive druggist somewhat exorbitant, as a general thing, haven't you? Wouldn't you be willing to transfer your patronage to a drug store that sells "Better Goods for the Same Money or the Same Goods for Less Money than Elsewhere"? That's exactly what the Drug Department of the Big Store has been doing ever since it opened. Our regular patrons know this; we want everybody to know it, especially the sceptic and the doubter. The easiest way to convince them, we believe, is to quote prices on well-known articles, selected at random from our general stock. This we have done. You've bought some of these goods before, quite recently perhaps, and you will no doubt remember just what you paid for them. If these quotations don't convince you that this is the cheapest place in town at which to buy whatever you need in this line, nothing will.
